

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

I am sick of this country being handed to the richest few. Michael Powell, you have no right to do what you are trying to do. You should be working to diversify the few media voices that presently exist, but instead you seem to believe that near-monopolies would better serve the public interest.
